DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4, 9-13 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Clark et al. (US 2002/0051953 A1).

1. Clark discloses a firearm laser training system that includes an assembly for projecting a laser beam from a conventional handgun (par. 26, lines 5-7) and a sensing device to detect the 'shots' or impact locations made at a target with a plurality of zones (Abstract). The system can assess the user's performance by determining a score based on the detected impact locations or bullet marks of the laser beam on the target (par. 15). The zones of the target are circles of different diameters that are designated by numbers (Fig. 8), which are used to calculate the performance of the user and displayed along side an image of the target (Fig. 8). The bullet marks are designate by numbers that are located in the center of an impact location of predetermined size and shape (Fig. 4) and are used to establish the order of the shots 'fired'. The system allows a shooter to practice on circle targets (Fig. 8) or human shaped targets (Fig. 4), which are, both predetermined shapes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3714

Claims 5-8 and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Clark et al. (US 2002/0051953 A1).

2. The above description of the invention disclosed by Clark & the limitations they pertain is considered within this art rejection as well. The prior art is silent about displaying a bullet marks as an "X", "+" or an arrow besides a circle. However the limitation of different symbols to designate a bullet mark carries no patentable weight since no stated problem is solved or unexpected result obtained by including this feature. Therefore the Office views these claim limitations as mere design choice.
